GOOD NEWS!!

The total number of general aviation accidents declined from 1,471 in 2012 to 1,222 last year.

The number of general aviation fatal accidents also was down, declining from 273 in 2012 to 221 in 2013, according to the NTSB. Fatalities declined from 440 to 387, and the accident rate per 100,000 flight hours dropped from 7.04 to 5.85.

Lets do even better this year !!

(Florida still leads the nation in accidents)
